Note:

- Distributions from unit trusts authorised under section 286 of the Securities and Futures Act (Cap 289) (excluding distributions out of franked dividends) derived directly by an individual on or after 1st January 2004 will be exempted from tax if such distributions are not considered as gains or profits from any trade, business or profession.
A unit holder, other than a foreign investor as defined in section 10(23) of the Singapore Income Tax Act, is required to declare in his tax return:
(i) the income in columns (a) and (e) if the unit holder is an individual resident in Singapore;
(ii) the income in columns (a), (e) and (f) in all other cases.
- This certificate should be carefully preserved as only this original will be accepted by the Income Tax Authorities in connection with any claim to allowance or relief from Income Tax.
- For a unit holder who has invested in the fund using CPF/SRS and opted for dividend payout, the above distribution amount will be credited into his/her CPF Investment Account / CPF-SA Account / SRS Account.
